About this book

This book is from Arca.

We used to be called the Australian Retail
Credit Association

This book is about help if you need to make a late loan payment.

Loan means a business gives you money to buy something.

For example, a bank gives you money to buy a house.

You have to pay the money back.

A loan can also be a credit card.

A business that gives loans is called a lender.

Why you might need to make a late loan payment

You might need to make a late loan payment if you have financial difficulties.

Financial difficulties means you do not have enough money.

You might not have enough money if there is a sudden change in your life.

For example

- you get very sick

- you find it hard to pay bills

- you lose your job

- there has been a natural disaster, like a flood or bush fire.

What to do if you need to make a late loan payment

You must talk to your lender if

- you miss a loan payment

- you think you might miss a loan payment.

Your lender might make a financial difficulty arrangement for you.

We call it a loan plan.

A loan plan might let you

- miss some payments on your loan

- make some late payments on your loan.

You still have to pay back all the missed or late payments.

What if you do not ask your lender for help?

You might miss a lot of loan payments if you do not ask your lender for help.

You might get a bad credit report if you miss a lot of loan payments.

A credit report is information lenders might use to decide if you should get a loan.

For example, if you have paid other loans on time.

A credit report says if you have made all your payments for things like

- your credit card
- your home loan
- your personal loan.

If your lender gives you a loan plan your credit report will

- say that your payments are up to date

- say that you have a loan plan.

Your credit report will say you have late payments if you do not get a loan plan from your lender.

It might be hard to get more loans if your credit report says you have late payments.

You can get a free copy of your credit report every 3 months.
